THIS BOOK IS THE PROPERTY OF

Ex Libris

This book is one that is meant especially for you, the graduating class of the current year. But before I begin to explain further the purpose of it, I would like to introduce myself. I am MBGS, mascot of the journalism students, famous columnist of the 'Emory Review', author of this yearbook, and chief mischief maker at N. X. C. Now that I've taken my bow, I will tell just what it was that prompted me to put this together.

During my walks about N. X. C., I became saturated with the spirit of the school — a spirit that radiates of the enthusiasm, love, and loyalty which you seniors feel towards your Alma Mater. I realized that your hopes, your dreams, and your future all had their beginning here under the watchful and loving guidance of her care.

It was then that I decided to try to capture and imprison within the two covers of a book the many memories of earnest prayers paid, hard work done, and unbounded happiness experienced by you for you to treasure in the long run of years that are to come.

What I have just written has been the primary purpose of my putting out this yearbook. I certainly do hope that I have succeeded in preparing a delightful surprise for you in the pages that are to follow. So...

I've watched you from the very first day you came to Mount Nazareth Academy. As years went by, I saw you grow from shy freshmen, bold sophomores, and loyal juniors to the serious young women you are today. During the course of your stay, I laughed at you, cried with you, and cheered for you. Now that you are leaving I take my hat off to you for, after four long years of hard work, you have finally reached the goal you had set for yourself as freshmen when you first came to M.N.A. You are the...

your research Academy have already passed your first man's year, and are now well on your way of preparing to get more a part of your diploma than and about the diploma you will receive ultimately as seniors. Most of you are two or three years filled with strenuous already passed, those too will be filled with an equal amount of prayer, work,

New York City, where they play a different kind of game, called "Poker". It's not like the one we play here. It's more complicated & involves a lot of strategy. So I decided to go back home again for some drama, action & intrigue.

It is an history of the war sent away as much as the country, and it is a very interesting work in a whole.
 It is of what is done to little of me!

the more I think about it the more I feel phisical to a person. I, mother!

I wish I could do something better & it would be better then now I could help these sick people want the pretty things.

You, newcomers have already experienced one year, at Mount Marath Academy... but pioneers have been presented to you and you have accepted them.
Your first year here, judging from the remains I have said, has been filled with many surprises. The comments that you have made similar to:

"School was never like this" "so far is more than the three years you have ahead of you, well, not so the same as the one you just have spent. Each semester carries with it new thrills and much excitement, and you have yet to experience them you were there....

I remember this cordiality meeting.

. But this I regret that remembrance: some made me feel as though I was sitting on a cloud with me, are seated: treasurer, secretary, and and vice-president and chair.

Meeting parties,
radio clubs,
and the like
are activities of the Mexican women
and social community
of the locality.
These committees
are the organizers of all of the locality's activities.

No one will ever know how glad I am to be a nurse when the girls of the Parish committee get together. Their meetings are really wonderful! The members are M. Goller, J. Makowski, C. Muschke, & Lianaki (chairman), M. J. Lingowski, and J. Musawski. The picture below shows them at their house, playing the new macheta records which were bought with the money obtained from the Pennsylvanian campaign, & given by the committee in the early part of the year.

Sneaking into orchestra practice with my violin and bow, I seated myself comfortably and tuned my instrument. While waiting for class to begin, I was distracted by a bit of floating dust. Not a second later, I found myself blown from my perch by the blast from S. Beckin's trumpet. Luckily no broken bones resulted, but my feelings

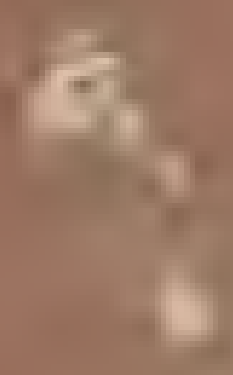

... but I hope you will find them as good as the others! and I hope I shall give you a sample of them some time.

I have not returned yet to the school and I am sure that the women are much improved in the school. I am sure that there is a desire to improve in the school.

Following my return to my old home, I found myself in a very different situation, and I was able to do much more work than I had been able to do before.

Look to the left and see at least one member of the hard work, as converting persons for the "Name". The man should be a "Name" man, not a "Name" man, and a "Name" man should be a "Name" man. Among them and the school paper. Above are the 'page editors' J. Mucowski, M.A. Limonick, J. Mucowski (secretary), and J. Limonick. Below Editor in chief is J. Mucowski passes out assignments to

It is at this time that J. M. B. S., would like to disclose my true identity. In reality, I am a composite of the editor, page editor, reporter, and columnist of the school's publications staff. My name has a very good reason for being what it is. Since I was first thought of by the page editor, I was dubbed with the title of "J. M. B. S.", representing the first initial of each of the four careers. Now that you know my secret, I have but one thing more to say, and it is that I hope I have at least a little smile to your lips and some joy to your heart. I have, then, I know that all I have done and said is dignity, worth, and certainly (not in vain).

editor for the school paper of the school paper.
